

Communication, language and literacy

Reading and writing

- Family and Me—Five Minutes Peace and Knuffle Bunny
- Repetition in stories— We're going on a Bear Hunt and Mrs Armitage
- Story sequence and captions— No-bot, the Robot with no Bottom
- Instructions and Commands—You can't Take an Elephant on the Bus
- Reimagining the Ordinary—Billy's Bucket, Stickman and Leaf Man
- Humorous Poems—Oi Frog!, Oi Dog! and Nicknames
- Pattern and Rhyme in Poetry—traditional rhymes
- Description, letters and greetings—Harvey Slumfenburger's Christmas Present

Physical development

- Fundamental movement
- Dance
- Handwriting

Phonics

- Monster Phonics

Mathematics

- Place value and partitioning
- Understanding numbers
- Measuring Length
- Shapes
- Time
- Addition and Subtraction
- Money

Class One Autumn Term

Where We Live (first half)

Builders (second half)

Understanding the world

Science, History, Geography and RE

- Living things and their habitats
- Symbolism of light (Christian, Jewish and Hindu)
- Harvest Festival
- Harvest past and present (The Little Red Hen)
- Ashdon—geographical features
- Seasonal changes
- Materials and their properties (building materials)
- The Great Fire of London
- Christmas/Nativity

Expressive arts and design

Art, Design Technology and Music

- Landscapes
- Constable country
- Drawing (tone)
- Construction (buildings, towns and villages)
- Sculpture (clay)
- Cutting, shaping and joining (Christmas decorations)

Class One will have Music with Mrs Clark on Friday mornings

Personal, emotional and social

- Health and Wellbeing
- Looking after ourselves and staying healthy

Computing

- Statistics – use software to display and interpret data.
- Programming using Scratch
- Understanding uses of technology in school and at home

Mr Rance will teach Class 1 Computing on Tuesday afternoons

Class 1 go on Safari on Thursday afternoons and often get very muddy so wellies, old clothes and waterproofs please!