

Lost property

I wanted to let families know the scale of the lost property problem we are currently seeing at our school. Below you will see a photo of all of the unnamed garments we currently have – there are 58 items in total, which is nearly 1 per child! There were a further 5 garments that had names, but most are currently hanging up on our gym bars, as they need drying out after being left outside over the weekend!

All of these unnamed items are stored in our green lost property bin in the front entrance to the school, so if you recognise something that belongs to one of your children, please come and take a look.

I therefore wish to make a plea to families to write your child's initials or name on at least one of the labels within their jumpers/cardigans etc., then when garments are left lying around we can return them to their rightful owner.
